is pleased to announce a competition for the

IAS/KRESS LECTURE IN PISA, ITALY

The IAS is actively seeking a speaker for the 2014 IAS/Kress Lecture in PISA Italy.

- The speaker must be an established scholar based in North America with a solid publication record.
- The proposed lecture may address any period in Italian art, but must be related to the host city of Pisa or Tuscany and its environs.
- The lecture may be given in Italian or English, should be approximately 45 minutes in length, and may not have been previously published or presented at another conference or venue.
- The selected presenter will receive an honorarium of $700 and a $900 supplementary lecture allowance, which can be used for travel, lodging, or translation expenses.
- The presenter must be a current member of the Italian Art Society.
- Details regarding the setting are coming soon online, though the speaker should be available to travel and present on either 29 May or 16 June 2014.

Proposals should include a letter of introduction, plus a one-page abstract of the paper to be delivered, and a current CV (submitted in a single PDF or Word document).

The deadline for the grant application is 4 JAN. 2014.

Questions should be directed to Janis Elliott, Chair of the IAS Awards Committee
