

ITALIAN ART SOCIETY CONFERENCE TRAVEL GRANTS

The Italian Art Society is pleased to announce a competition for TWO GRANTS
of $500 each that support travel to either

1. The College Art Association meeting in Chicago, February 2014
2. The Renaissance Society of America meeting in New York City, March 2014
3. The Society of Architectural Historians meeting in Austin, TX, April 2014
4. The International Congress for Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo, May 2014
5. Or any conference where IAS sponsors a session (such as AAIS and SCSC)

This competition is open to Master's or PhD students, or PhD recipients within ten years of the degree (pre-tenure, non-tenure-track or independent scholars), presenting a paper at one of these conferences about the art or architecture of ancient to contemporary Italy.

Recipients are strongly encouraged to become members of the IAS. For more information about the benefits and ease of membership, see www.italianartsociety.org.

The deadline for the grant application is November 1, 2013.

Please send the following as a single WORD or PDF document (with last name in title) via e-mail to the Chair of the IAS Awards Committee, Janis Elliott, at awards@italianartsociety.org:

- an introductory letter indicating your IAS membership status
- a current two-page C.V.
- your paper abstract with session title and chair information
- a preliminary budget
- a description of other possible travel funding sources
- contact data for your current or former academic advisor

Award notification will be by December 1st.

The Italian Art Society (IAS) is a professional organization dedicated to the study of Italian art and architecture from antiquity through the present. Visit www.italianartsociety.org.