

The Italian Art Society announces its 2nd Annual DISSERTATION RESEARCH GRANT

- This grant is for up to $1000.00 to fund or subsidize research travel or other expenses, available for use during 2017. Dissertation research projects may relate to the study of any aspect of the architecture or visual arts of Italy, from the prehistoric period to the present day. Only dissertation research will be funded and applicants must have advanced to candidacy.
- Doctoral students of any nationality who have not received an IAS award in the past two years are welcome to apply.

Applicants must be IAS members at the time of application and use of the funds. Priority will be given to meritorious projects. IAS officers and committee members are not eligible to apply.

The Peter Fogliano and Hal Lester Foundation Dissertation Research Grant

In 2017, IAS will offer one additional dissertation grant of up to $1000.00 generously funded by the Peter Fogliano and Hal Lester Foundation, for dissertation projects concerning art and architecture in Italy between ca. 1300 and ca. 1650. The Fogliano/Lester Foundation Dissertation Research Grant will be selected from the pool of IAS Dissertation Grant applications. No special application is necessary.

Application deadline: January 10, 2017

Please send the following as a single WORD or PDF document (with last name in title) via e-mail to the Chair of the IAS Awards Committee, Kimberly Dennis, at awards@italianartsociety.org :

- an introductory cover letter indicating your IAS membership status
- a one-page description of the project
- a current two-page C.V.
- a proposed budget
- a description of other potential funding sources

ITALIAN
ART
SOCIETY

The IAS Awards Committee will determine the awarding of the grant, with final approval by the Board of Directors. The announcement of the award, including the awardee's name and project title, will be made on the IAS website and at the annual IAS business meeting at CAA. Upon acceptance of the grant, the awardee must submit a 250-word abstract of the project to be posted on the IAS website. Funding must be used within the 2017 calendar year and a final report indicating actual expenses must be submitted to the IAS Treasurer and IAS President by December 31, 2017.

The Italian Art Society (IAS) is a professional organization dedicated to the study of Italian art and architecture from antiquity through the present. Visit www.italianartsociety.org for more information and membership details.